Biography

Brian Shields has built his legal career advising business leaders, professional managers, entrepreneurs, banks, and family offices on how to maximize value and manage risk in a wide variety of litigation and transactional matters.

Brian's primary focus is complex commercial litigation, buy-side and sell-side mergers and acquisitions, investment transactions, corporate reorganizations, and commercial and multifamily real estate transactions.

Brian's clients include banks, as well as a diverse mix of mid-size companies, growing entrepreneur-led companies, private equity companies, and mature single or multigenerational companies transitioning or exiting their business. Industries in which Brian has depth of experience include real estate, restaurants and retail, banking, technology, energy, transportation and logistics, and pharmaceuticals.
