Biography

Victor John has a broad range of legal experience in vastly different areas. From 2018 to 2021, Victor served as an Assistant District Attorney in Essex County, north of Boston. Focusing on domestic and family violence cases, Victor worked to hold perpetrators accountable and protect victims of violent crimes. After moving to Dallas in 2021, Victor's practice transitioned to civil litigation, with a focus on complex commercial and corporate disputes.

Victor draws from his varied background and broad courtroom experience to deftly assist clients through all types of professional conflicts. Victor's approach focuses on exceptional client service through communication, organization and effective strategy. No conflict is predictable, but understanding and evaluating a variety of approaches allows Victor to remain flexible and prepared for the challenges that each client faces in litigation.

Victor has a proven record of success through careful assessment and consistent meaningful communication with clients. Victor has argued thousands of motions, represented clients in dozens of depositions, conducted two-dozen trials, and continually advocated for clients to achieve successful results.
