Biography

Rachel Huskins is an associate attorney with Shields Legal Group's Litigation & Business Disputes team. She guides businesses in resolving high-stakes contract disputes and navigating complex shareholder and partnership litigation. Known for her clear, strategic thinking, persuasive writing, and witty sense of humor, Rachel brings clarity and precision to even the most challenging legal problems.

Rachel's experience with Shields Legal began during law school, where she supported trial teams, drafted motions, and managed electronic discovery in multi-party disputes as a legal intern. Today, she leverages that foundation to deliver practical, results-driven solutions for clients facing critical business challenges.
